Speaker: Ryan Walter

Ryan Walter retired from Professional Hockey in 1993 after playing 15 seasons in the National Hockey League. Drafted second overall by the Washington Capitals in 1978, Ryan was named Captain during his 4 years with that organization. He went on to play 9 seasons with the Montreal Canadiens, winning a Stanley Cup in 1986. Finally, he returned to his hometown to play his last two years for the Vancouver Canucks.

Since retiring, Ryan has very much enjoyed being the "Color-Man," broadcasting NHL games for TV and a founding partner in two separate startup companies. In addition he has written three books, been featured as an actor and technical advisor in various productions, earned a Master of Arts Degree in Leadership/Business and maintains an ever increasing schedule of Corporate Motivational Speaking, Leadership Development and Personal Performance Coaching.

Throughout his life, Ryan has been embarking on a spiritual journey as well. He shares, "God has chosen to spread His message through the world person by person, and I seemed to encounter one of those messengers everywhere I played, but it was in Washington DC, with the Capitals, that a teammate profoundly impacted my life."

Come hear Ryan's story at the Calgary Leadership Prayer Breakfast on October 26th.

Calgary Leadership Prayer Breakfast

Purpose:

The Calgary Leadership Prayer Breakfast serves as a quiet way to reaffirm our faith in God and an opportunity to participate in fellowship.

The practice has its precedent in the National and Provincial Capitals where our Leaders have assembled for the past thirty-eight years. Each gathering is a public affirmation of the responsibilities of a nation under God.

Sponsored by concerned government, business, labour and professional leaders, Prayer Breakfasts are held in more than fifty countries, each in its own way contributing to a wider spiritual awakening.
